

Benefit Checklist for Maine - March 2007

(Higher income limits may be retroactive to 4/1/07 indicated in parentheses-check with us in April)

Single / One person household

My monthly income is less than $1,575 and I am 62 or am disabled – You are probably eligible for Low Cost Drug Program. Saves you as much as 80% on generic prescription drugs and savings on some name brand drugs for covered diseases if you don't have Medicare yet. If you do have Medicare, helps pay premium of Medicare Part D Plan, lowers co-pay on brand name drugs under Medicare Part D, pays 50% of Part D deductible, provides help on drug costs under Part D during any coverage gap (donut hole) period.

My monthly income in 2005 was less than $6,416. Age does not matter. You may qualify for the Maine Residents Property Tax and Rent Refund Program. If you paid property tax or rent in 2005, and lived in Maine all of the year 2005, you might qualify for a refund. Deadline to apply for 2005 refund is May 31, 2007. Application for 2006 may be made after August 1, 2007.

My monthly income is less than $1,348 and I am at least age 60. I have less than $3,000 in cash assets – You may be eligible for Food Stamps.

My monthly income is less than $1,389 and I am age 60 or older. You may be eligible for Home Energy Assistance Program to help with home heating costs.

My monthly income is less than $1,224 ($1,574) and I receive Social Security.– You may be eligible for Qualified Individual-1 (QI-1) or, if less than $1,055 ($1,446), Specified Low-Income Medicare Beneficiary (SLMB). Pays your Medicare Part B monthly premium adding an extra $93.50 each month to your Social Security check. May also be eligible for very valuable extra benefits under the new Medicare Part D Prescription Drug Program. NO ASSET LIMIT for this benefit. ←

My monthly income is less than $926 ($1,276) and I receive Social Security.– You may be eligible for Qualified Medicare Beneficiary (QMB). Pays your Medicare Part B monthly premium adding an extra $93.50 each month to your Social Security check. Pays Medicare deductibles and co-insurance saving you from paying for a Medicare supplemental insurance. May also be eligible for very valuable extra benefits under the new Medicare Part D Prescription Drug Program. NO ASSET LIMIT for this benefit. ←

My monthly income is less than $926 and I am at least age 65 or am disabled. I have less than $10,000 in cash and interest bearing bank accounts – You may be eligible for Maine Care. Pays your Medicare Part B monthly premium adding an extra $93.50 each month to your Social Security check. Pays your Medicare deductibles and co-insurances, pays for some dental care, pays medical transportation.

My monthly income is less than $643 and I am at least age 65 or am disabled and have less than $2,000 in cash and interest bearing accounts – You may be eligible for Supplemental Security Income (SSI). May provide some additional income and qualifies you for Maine Care benefits (see above).

For more information, an application for any benefit, or help completing an application contact Aroostook Agency on Aging, 33 Davis St. Presque Isle, ME 04769

Telephone 764-3396; toll free 1-877-353-3771; 1-800-439-1789